

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Grant and Graham Partners with Bizzvance to Offer Estonian Company Formation and Accounting Services

London, United Kingdom – 11 March 2025 – Grant and Graham Ltd, a premier consultancy firm, is pleased to announce a strategic partnership with Bizzvance OÜ, a leading service provider specializing in company formation and accounting solutions in Estonia. This collaboration will provide businesses and entrepreneurs with a seamless process for establishing and managing companies in Estonia, one of the most business-friendly jurisdictions in Europe.

Through this partnership, Grant and Graham will act as an intermediary, introducing clients to Bizzvance for company registration and ongoing accounting services. Clients will benefit from professional support in setting up an Estonian company, obtaining legal addresses, and ensuring compliance with local tax regulations. Additionally, comprehensive accounting services, including monthly bookkeeping, tax filings, and financial reporting, will be available.

Key Highlights of the Partnership:

- Company Formation in Estonia: A streamlined process for registering companies, including e-residency options and full administrative support.
- Company Registration by Power of Attorney: Clients who cannot be physically present in Estonia can register their companies remotely through a notarized power of attorney process.
- Comprehensive Accounting Services: Bizzvance provides end-to-end financial management services, with transparent pricing tailored to business needs.
- Exclusive Benefits for Clients: Clients referred by Grant and Graham gain access to expert guidance and priority processing.
- Ongoing Commission Model: Grant and Graham will receive a 10% commission on paid accounting services for referred clients, ensuring long-term support for business growth.

“We are thrilled to partner with Bizzvance to offer our clients a reliable and efficient way to establish and manage their businesses in Estonia,” said Andrew Collins, Business Owner at Grant and Graham Ltd. “Estonia’s business environment, combined with Bizzvance’s expertise, provides a fantastic opportunity for entrepreneurs looking to expand in Europe.”

This partnership reinforces Grant and Graham’s commitment to providing value-driven business solutions and supporting clients in navigating international business landscapes.
